General Overview

What is Unclaimed Property?

Unclaimed property is any financial asset, usually intangible, held for a person or entity that cannot be found. Examples of unclaimed property types include account balances, unpaid wages or commissions, stocks, bonds, refunds, utility deposits, insurance proceeds, cashier's checks, money orders, safe deposit box contents, and others.

Who is a "Holder" of Unclaimed Property?

Any business entity in possession of unclaimed property is a potential holder. Examples of holders include banks, insurance companies, investment firms, utilities, corporations, partnerships, LLCs, sole-proprietorships, government agencies, not-for-profit organizations, estates, trusts, universities, hospitals, doctors offices, grocery stores, gas stations, or any other entity holding money for a client, customer, or otherwise.

What does the Law Require that I do with Unclaimed Property?

1. Identify if your business is holding unclaimed property.
2. Determine if the property has been inactive or dormant for the appropriate abandonment period (can be between 1-15 years, depending on property type).
3. Perform due diligence.
4. Collect information.
5. Prepare the report.
6. File the report and submit property to us by deadline.

What is Due Diligence?

Due diligence is written notice to the owners at their last known address informing them of property that will be reported unless they respond in a timely manner to reclaim the money from the holder. Owners must be provided at least 90 days to respond to due diligence letters before a report is filed. Due diligence must be performed if the value is greater than $50 and the address for the owner appears to be accurate. For your convenience, sample due diligence letters are provided on pages 17&18.

What is aggregate reporting?

Statute allows items under $50.00 to be lumped together into a single aggregate amount. Stock, safe deposit box contents, and all other non-cash items must be listed individually.

What information will I need to report unclaimed property?

For the owners that you are unable to locate, collect any additional information such as last known mailing addresses, social security numbers, birth dates, relationship codes, transaction dates, property types, and legal description (for oil & gas). For your convenience, reporting codes are provided on Pages 11-15.

When are Annual Reports Due?

Life Insurance - prior to May 1st

All other businesses - prior to November 1st

Get to know NAUPA.

NAUPA (National Association of Unclaimed Property Administrators) has approved a standard set of codes in a uniform format with the purpose of making electronic reporting more uniform for all holders. The most current version of the NAUPA Standard Electronic File Format may be found at www.unclaimed.org.

How should an oil & gas company report mineral proceeds?

In accordance with A.C.A. §18-28-201(9), Arkansas requires that mineral proceeds be reported on a pay to current basis. Mineral proceeds are amounts payable for the extraction, production, or sale of minerals, or upon the abandonment of those payments, all payments that become payable thereafter. The holder must provide the well name county, section, township, and range of the well with the report of unclaimed property.

Where can I find detailed instructions for Reporting Unclaimed Property to Arkansas?

Go to www.auditor.ar.gov to learn more about the reporting process.

Safekeeping Delivery Instructions

Every holder maintaining safe deposit boxes or other safekeeping repositories located in the state of Arkansas must report and remit property in its possession which constitutes unclaimed property to the Auditor of State.

1. The unclaimed property report must be received prior to November 1 by way of UPEXpress or by mail along with transmittal form and CD-ROM.
2. The actual box/repository contents must be remitted with the Auditor of State inventory forms attached between January 1 and February 28.
3. You must provide a list containing any owner(s) names that were returned prior to the delivery of contents.
4. Our office will not accept human remains (for example, teeth, hair, or cremains), medical devices or implants (dentures, IUD, etc.), prescription drugs, illicit drugs, or drug paraphernalia. Our office retains the right to decline to receive any other property reported which is considered to have a value that is less than the expenses of notice and sale which is consistent with A.C.A. § 18-28-217(a).
5. Any items having no value may be disposed of at the holder's discretion. If no contents remain in an owner's box after disposing of items having no value, the safe deposit box should not be included on the report of unclaimed property.
6. If the bank, financial institution, or company chooses to sell the contents at auction, it may deduct its rental, the cost of opening the box, and the damages in connection therewith from the proceeds of such sale. Any excess proceeds from such sale shall be remitted in accordance with A.C.A. § 18-28-202(a)(14).
7. The contents of each safe deposit box must be placed into a container, bag, or envelope that is properly sealed to prevent access to the contents. The contents must be delivered in a container that is separate from the sealed container, bag, or envelope holding the items. Be especially careful with fragile, heavy, or irregular shaped objects as items are tossed around during shipping and the envelopes they are sent in can be ripped or torn.

8. Each container of contents should be clearly labeled with the owner's name and the box number. If you need more than one envelope for each owner, please indicate 1 of 2, 2 of 2, etc.
9. Prepare 2 copies of the inventory for each owner. Place the original inside with the contents and staple the copy to the outside of each container of contents.
10. You must use the Tangible Type Codes that are provided on Page 15 when completing the Safe Deposit Box Inventory Form. Two signatures are required on the inventory form. For your convenience, the Safe Deposit Box Inventory Form may be found on Page 16.
11. Label the outside of the shipping container 1 of 2, 2 of 2, etc.

We strongly recommend that safe deposit box/repository contents be delivered by bonded messenger or by insured mail for receipt at our office between 8:00 AM and 4:00 PM, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

AD	Administrator	The person appointed by the court to handle the estate of someone who died without a will, with a will with no nominated executor, or the executor named in the will has died, has been removed from the case, or does not desire to serve.
AG	Agent For	A person who is authorized to act for another (the agent's principal) through employment, by contract, or apparent authority.
AF	Attorney For	A person who has been qualified by a State or Federal court to provide legal services, including appearing in court, and is authorized to act for another.
AN	And (Unspecified Joint Relationship)	Unspecified joint relationship including 'AND'.
BF	Beneficiary	Any person or entity (like a charity) who is to receive assets or profits from an estate, a trust, an insurance policy, or any instrument in which there is distribution.
CP	Community Property	Property or earnings received by a husband and wife during marriage, other than by gift, devise, or descent. Separate property is property owned by a spouse before marriage or received during the marriage by gift, devise or descent. In some jurisdictions, earnings from separate property are also separate property, and in some jurisdictions, such earnings are community property. California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Nevada, Idaho, Washington, Wisconsin, Louisiana and Puerto Rico recognize 'Community Property'.
CN	Conservator	A guardian and protector appointed by a judge to protect and manage the financial affairs and/or the person's daily life due to physical or mental limitations or old age.
CF	Custodian	A person with whom some article is left, usually pursuant to a contract (called a "contract of bailment"), who is responsible for the safe return of the article to the owner when the contract is fulfilled.
DF	Defendant	The party sued in a civil lawsuit or the party charged with a crime in a criminal prosecution.
ES	Estate	All the possessions of one who has died and are subject to probate (administration supervised by the court) and distribution to heirs and beneficiaries, all the possessions which a guardian manages for a ward (young person requiring protection and administration of affairs), or assets a conservator manages for a conservatee (a person whose physical or mental lack of competence requires administration of his/her affairs).
EX	Executor or Executrix	The person appointed to administer the estate of a person who has died leaving a will which nominates that person.
FB	For Benefit of	A person who is entitled to property that is held by another person (typically a custodian or trustee). FB is typically used in trustee, self-directed, inherited, education and transferred accounts.
GR	Guardian	A person who has been appointed by a judge to take care of a minor child (called a "ward") or incompetent adult personally and/or manage that person's affairs.
HE	Heir	Anyone who receives property of a deceased person either by will or under the laws of descent and distribution. (Explanation: a devisee under a will is also an "heir", even though unrelated to the decedent.)
IN	Insured	The person or entity who will be compensated for loss by an insurer under the terms of a contract called an insurance policy.
JT	Joint Tenants	An account held in joint tenancy presumes a right of survivorship, but this presumption can be overcome by evidence that the account was really the property of only one, and the joint tenancy was for convenience. Right of Survivorship is not specifically stated.

JS	Joint Tenants with Rights of Survivorship	A type of account which is owned by at least two people, where all tenants have an equal right to the account's assets and are afforded survivorship rights in the event of the death of another account holder. In this type of account, a surviving member will inherit the total value of the other member's share of account assets upon the death of that other member. All members of the account are afforded the power to conduct investment transactions within the account as well.
TC	Tenants in Common	A type of account which is owned by at least two people with no rights of survivorship afforded to any of the account holders. In this type of account, a surviving tenant of the account does not necessarily acquire the rights (and account assets) of the deceased person. Rather, each tenant in the account can stipulate in a written will how his/her assets will be distributed upon his/her death. Generally, the member ownership in the account is determined on a pro rata basis, meaning that if there are two tenants in the account, each will have a 50% claim on the account's value.
JE	Tenants in Entireties	Joint ownership of property or securities by a husband and wife where, upon the death of one, the property goes to the survivor.
OR	(Or) Unspecified Joint Relationship	Unspecified joint relationship including 'OR'

PA	Payee	The one named on a check or promissory note to receive payment.
PO	Power of Attorney	A written document signed by a person giving another person the power to act for the signer in designated circumstances and with respect to designated property. Explanation: There are both general powers of attorney which give the authorized party broad discretion and special powers of attorney that are limited in scope.
RE	Remitter	Used primarily on official checks. The Remitter is the person who purchased the official check. This relationship is separate from the Holder who turns the property over to the state.
SO	Sole Owner	Sole Owner is used when there is only a single owner for the property, and that person has all rights to the ownership of the property.
TE	Trustee	A person or entity who holds the assets (corpus) of a trustee for the benefit of the beneficiaries and manages the trust and its assets under the terms of the trust stated in the Declaration of Trust which created it.
UG	Uniform Gifts to Minor	Property that is gifted to a Minor under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act – (UGMA). This act allows minors to own property such as securities. Under the UGMA, the ownership of the funds works like it does with any other trust except that the donor must appoint a custodian (the trustee) to look after the account. Regardless of whether the minor has reached the age of majority, they should be coded with the UG relation. The custodian on the account should be coded as CU.
UT	Uniform Transfer to Minor	Property that is gifted to a minor under the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act – (UTMA). This act allows a minor to receive gifts such as money, patents, royalties, real estate and fine art, without the aid of a guardian or trustee. The gift giver or an appointed custodian manages the minor's account until the minor is of age (usually 18 or 21).
UN	Unknown	The owner's relationship to the property is not known.
UF	Usufruct	Usufruct is a real right in a property owned by another, normally for a limited time or until death. Simply stated, it is the right to use the property, to enjoy the fruits and income of the property, to rent the property out and to collect the rents, all to the exclusion of the underlying real or naked owner. The usufructuary has the full right to use the property but cannot dispose of the property nor can it be destroyed.
