

AFFIDAVIT OF DUAL HEIRSHIP

An affidavit of dual heirship can be used to establish the heirs of deceased persons ("decedents") when there is no probated will or estate. The affidavit of dual heirship must show the family bloodline and cannot skip a generation. To use an affidavit of dual heirship for this purpose please follow the instructions below:

1. The person signing the affidavit of heirship cannot be an heir. (i.e., signor is a friend of the family or acquaintance)
2. The signature of the person signing the affidavit of heirship must be notarized (signed in front of the notary).
3. List all heirs at the time of the decedents' death. Use additional pages, if necessary. (i.e., list all children)
 - a. If any of the heirs are now deceased, please label the person as "deceased."
4. Provide copies of both death certificates along with the affidavit of dual heirship.
